Boycotting Ohio Journals.

CHARLESTON ELECTION.

History of the Hog.

DEATH BY LIGHTNING.

Unprovoked Murder.

The Storm in Pennsylvania.

One of the heaviest rain storms of the season visited Harrisburg, Pa., and vicinity yesterday, where rain has fallen continuously for ten days. Considerable damage has been done in the farming districts. Reports from up the Susquehanna state that a boom at Williamsport has broken and thousands of logs are coming down. All the streams are much swollen. Last night Paxton creek was flooded, and the entire lower and eastern sections of Harrisburg were under water, and several industrial establishments were obliged to stop operations. The water was still rising.

Extensive Washout.

The Northern and Eastern trains of the Pennsylvania road have been delayed about three hours, by reason of an extensive washout on the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore road near Aberdeen, about forty miles beyond Baltimore. Connection was established by way of York, Pennsylvania.

Jerome Park Races.

At Jerome Park, N. Y., races yesterday. Edenderry won the mile race, for $500, in 1:49; Sir Hugh the mile heats, for $600, in 1:48 and 1:50; Geranium mile and an eighth, for the members' cup, in 2:10; Geo. McCullough mile and a half, in 2:46; and Disturbance the steeplechase, for $600, in 3:47 3/4.

Special Election at Charleston.

In the special election in the second (or Charleston) congressional district of South Carolina, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman O'Connor yesterday, Samuel Dibble, the democratic candidate, was elected without opposition. The republicans abstained from voting on the theory that Mackey, O'Connor's opponent in the contest, was really elected last fall, and that therefore no vacancy existed. The vote was very light.

Boycotting Cleveland Newspapers.

The Trades Assembly at Cleveland, Ohio, have issued a "Boycotting" proclamation against the Herald and Leader, of that city, on account of trouble between those papers and the Typographical Union.

Struck by Lightning.

Two men were killed by lightning while taking shelter in a barn in Anna Arundel county, yesterday.

The Tale of the Hog.

The Secretary of State is distributing in this country and Europe a pamphlet giving the results of an investigation made under the direction of the Secretary of the hog and hog product of the United States, which it is hoped will set at rest once and forever all fears entertained, especially abroad, of the purity of American pork and lard.

An Indiana Boy.

Charles Boyer, aged 17, shot and killed a stranger at Vincennes, Ind., Wednesday. The shooting was unprovoked. Boyer was arrested.

Pennsylvania Legislature Adjourned.

The Pennsylvania Legislature adjourned sine die yesterday. The bill passed by the Senate to remedy the evils of speculative life insurance was defeated in the House during the preceding all-night session for the lack of one vote to make a constitutional majority, and a two-thirds vote could not be secured to reconsider.

Proposed for Governor.

Hon. A. M. Kelley, of Richmond, is put forward by the Petersburg Index-Appel as an available democratic candidate for Governor of Virginia. Mr. Kelley is one of the most eloquent speakers and brilliant writers in the old Commonwealth.

Diphtheria in Michigan.

One hundred and twenty children have died recently at Luddington, Mich., of diphtheria. The total population of the place is 4,000. The schools are closed, and police are stationed at houses where sickness exists to prevent ingress or egress.

Killed by the Steamboat Explosion.

The following persons, scalded by the explosion of the boiler of the steamboat Hanna, near New Orleans, Wednesday, have since died: John Logan, Henry Davis, Henry Wallace, Geo. Johnson and Jack Bates. After the explosion John Britton jumped overboard and was drowned. George Gibbs, John Wallis, Stephen Thomas and Paul Miner are not expected to recover. All are colored. It is understood that the Hanna was racing with the St. John.

The Missing Stores.

The missing cargo-load of Arctic stores for the United States steamer Rodgers was found at Ogden, Utah, Wednesday, and is now expected to arrive at San Francisco on Sunday, in which event the Rodgers will be ready to sail on next Wednesday.

The Riots in Ireland.

A dispatch from Limerick says: "Eight suspected persons, belonging to Skull and Skibbereen, have been arrested, under the Viceroy's warrant, and conveyed to jail here. The coroner's jury have returned a verdict that Mahoney, the farmer, who was killed at the recent riot at Bolyke county, Clare, died from being struck by a policeman, at present unknown, whom they found guilty of wilful murder."

The Storm at Pittsburgh.

The unprecedented rains at this season of the year have done an immense amount of damage. A large number of rafts moored in the Allegheny river broke loose, causing a loss of $150,000. A horse and wagon floated ashore at the lower part of the city a short time since. A man went down on a raft and could not be rescued. A number of small bridges on railroads leading to the city have been swept away, impeding travel very seriously. Traffic on the Pittsburgh, Virginia and Charleston railway is stopped completely. A large washout on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will stop their operations for some time. Great damage has been done to crops on the bottom lands.

The Fishing Question.

In the House of Commons, Sir Charles Wentworth Dilke, under foreign secretary, replying to a question by Mr. McFarlane, liberal, said that as the provisions of the treaty of Washington, under which the Americans enjoy the privilege of fishing in British colonial waters, could not in any case expire before 1885, the government was not at present in a position to consider the expediency of terminating the treaty as far as relates to the fishery question.

A Colored Robber.

John Thomas, a colored boy, pleaded guilty to-day in the Criminal Court of robbing Mrs. Sarah E. Judd on the 27th day of April, 1881, and was sent to the reform school until 21. The defendant met Mrs. Judd on the day in question and threatened her in a manner that caused her to become greatly alarmed, so that she offered little resistance to Thomas when he snatched her pocketbook and ran away. The portemonnaie contained two $5 bills.

Only a Stomach Ache.

Joseph Hartman, aged 35 years, who attempted to commit suicide on Wednesday morning at Rost's Park, Baltimore, by swallowing the contents of an ounce vial of laudanum, is reported by the physicians attending him at the City Hospital to be in an improved condition, and will be able to be about again in the course of a week. Hartman said he only took the laudanum for a stomach ache.

Verdict of Suicide.

The jury of inquest in the case of Mrs. Jemison, of Cecil county, Maryland, has rendered a verdict that she came to her death from violence at her own hands. From evidence given it was shown that Mrs. Jemison had premeditated the deed and hung herself with an ordinary clothes line to a beam in the garret on Saturday afternoon, May 23.

A Story about Conkling's Cur.

A lady whose family used to be intimate with that of the late Judge Conkling when they lived in Auburn, tells this incident: "One day Roscoe was visiting at our house. My father was getting ready for his morning ride among his patients, and his horse and gig stood at the door. Roscoe took a pin and pricked the horse on the haunch, and the animal kicked, hitting young Roscoe a severe blow on the forehead, and making a scar which he still carries. This is why he permits a cur to drop down and cover the blemish."

Personal Paragraphs.

Postmaster General James has gone to New York for a few days. Secretary Windom is expected to return to Washington to-night. Representative Dezenford says the President is against repudiation in Virginia or elsewhere.

Major Twining yesterday left for New York, to be absent for several days.

Vanderbilt paid $6,000 for a parlor carpet the other day. Now, it is said, he is having a bronze door made in Italy at a cost of $15,000 for his new residence.

Franklin Simmons, the sculptor, has arrived in New York, intending to spend the summer with his friends.

E. S. Inman, of the ocean steamship line of that name, has just been created a Companion of the Bath. He is the youngest member of that order.

Wm. Archer, the jockey of Ironquols, was placed in the saddle when only 6 years old, by his father, who was a distinguished cross-country rider.

The Rev. Dr. Benj. Szold, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Henrietta, sailed yesterday from Baltimore on the steamship Braunschweig for Europe.

Among the Washingtonians registered in Paris, France, May 27, were C. J. Bell, Mrs. Bell, W. H. Emory, Mrs. Emory, Hon. G. Hubbard, Mrs. Hubbard, Miss Hubbard; in London, J. M. Ormes; in Geneva, Switzerland, John A. Willis, Mrs. C. L. Willis, Miss M. F. Willis; in Dresden, Lieut. F. Hill and family.
